

Sunday

October 19, 2014

2 PM

Walking Tour of Historic Gleasondale Village

The Stow Historical Commission and Historical Society are sponsoring another walking tour of the mill village of Gleasondale – weather permitting. This is the second part of our tour and it will highlight a different section of Gleasondale to include the Gleasondale Methodist Church, parsonages, mill supervisor's homes, location of the railroad stations and shoe factory. We will meet and park at the town common in front of the old church.